

Biographies

BORYANA ZAMANOFF, J.D., TEP

SENIOR DIRECTOR, FAMILY WEALTH STRATEGIST
BNY MELLON WEALTH MANAGEMENT

As a Family Wealth Strategist at BNY Mellon, Boryana Zamanoff works with clients and their advisors to provide comprehensive wealth planning advice.

Upon joining the firm, Boryana served as the Senior Fiduciary Officer in California for four years and has extensive experience in trust construction, trust administration and multigenerational families. In addition, Boryana specializes in wealth transfer, business succession, divorce planning, philanthropy, family governance and next generation education.

Prior to joining BNY Mellon, Boryana worked as a trust and estates attorney at Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, where she advised high net worth families, closely held business owners as well as a number of private foundations and public charities. Before becoming an attorney, Boryana worked for Deloitte Consulting implementing brand management solutions for Fortune 500 clients.

In 2021, Boryana was named on the Los Angeles Times list of “Banking and Finance Visionaries.” Boryana frequently lectures on wealth planning topics to forums such as the ABA, AAML, Entrepreneurs’ Organization, Vistage, UCLA Law School, USC Business School, Texas Advanced Family Law Conference, New Frontiers in Marital Property Law, Hawaii Tax Institute, STEP and numerous estate planning councils. Boryana serves on the Board of LEAD, the leadership organization of UCLA Law School.

Boryana obtained her Juris Doctor from UCLA School of Law and her Bachelor Of Arts degree in Economics and German, summa cum laude and Class Valedictorian, from Colgate University. She has five sons and lives with her family in Manhattan Beach.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts, Colgate University
Juris Doctor, UCLA Law School

BOARD MEMBERSHIP

Board Member, LEAD, UCLA School of Law

RECOGNITION

Los Angeles Times Banking and Finance Visionaries (2021)
Chambers High Net Worth: Wealth Managers (2022-2023)