

Mike Gregory

Mike Gregory first learned about collaboration a few minutes after he was born when his twin brother, Mark, entered the world and he began to share the world with his other four siblings. Mike will present his unique approach, The Collaboration Effect®, in a three-part event focusing on management of IRS audits, working with clients through the Great Wealth Transfer and improving our own work environments in Leading By Example.

Mike has over 25 years of management experience, extensive work with neuroscientists and is as an avid researcher. He has authored 12 books and over 45 published articles, conducted over 2,500 mediations and negotiations and saved clients over $1B working with Fortune 100 Companies. Mike's education and certification credentials include:

- Degrees BS, MS and MBA
- Accredited Senior Appraiser with the American Society of Appraisers
- Certified Valuation Analyst, National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts
- Qualified mediator with the Minnesota Supreme Court.
- Registered Professional Engineer (29 years)
- Certified General Real Property Appraiser (19 years)
